

Objective

My name is Eddie Barkman. I'm a multimedia artist and graphic designer. I love exploring all of the different areas of design as well as new things I'm unfamiliar with. I'm seeking employment somewhere I can use all of my skills to strengthen the company and develop new skills to grow as a designer.

Areas of Focus

-  Web Development
-  Graphic Design
-  Multimedia/Videos

The different areas of design compliment each other. Being skilled in one can make the others even stronger. I try to make myself open to learning new things and improving myself whenever possible.
